

Cesarean Section Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. Most common type of anesthesia used for cesarean section.
6. Pharmaceutical used for hemorrhage.
8. Pharmaceutical used following delivery of the uterus.
10. Two words (do not include space) Premature separation of the placenta from the wall of the uterus.
12. Middle muscular layer of the uterus.
13. Two words (do not include space) 4500g in a diabetic woman or greater than 5000 g in non-diabetic woman.
14. Uterine appendages (fallopian tubes and ovaries)
15. Who to call for cesarean section training.
16. Difficult labor and delivery caused by the size, shape or position of the fetus.
18. Abdominal incision.

Down

1. Uterine incision.
2. Common incision used in cesarean section.
3. Two words (do not include space) Disproportion between the size of the fetus and the pelvis, resulting in the inability of the head to fit through the pelvis.
4. Inflammation of the membranes that surround the fetus. It is usually associated with a bacterial infection, possibly bacteria ascending from the mother's genital tract into the uterus.
7. Type of incision used on the uterus that provides adequate access and low intraoperative blood loss.
9. Muscular organ.
11. The number of times a woman has been pregnant.
17. Vaginal Birth after Cesarean Section.