

Cervical Health Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. The upper, dome-like portion of the uterus is called the:
5. To treat an incompetent cervix, what procedure is performed?
8. The ovary may or may not be removed during hysterectomy. What hormone is the ovary responsible for producing?
9. Which uterine ligament consists of a double fold of pelvic peritoneum?
10. A common position for patients undergoing any gynecological surgical procedure is:
12. How many layers does the uterine body contain?

Down

2. Another name for the womb is:
3. The procedure to repair torn surfaces of the cervix is known as:
4. A surgical procedure that involves surgical removal of the uterus, corpus, and cervix is called:
6. This diagnostic test provides the most comprehensive specimen in diagnosing pre-malignant or malignant lesions.
7. Another name for the paracervical ligament is:
11. A common infection that spreads via sexual activity and can lead to cervical cancer is:
12. Invasive cervical cancer is diagnosed in approximately _____ thousand women annually.