

Across

1. _____ is an opening into the gallbladder.
3. The maximum pressure for insufflation is _____ mmHg.
6. _____ is a diagnostic test if gallstones are suspected in the duct.
7. A cholecystectomy performed through an incision in the subcostal region is considered:
11. CO2 is used to create a _____ in the abdomen.
12. An imbalance of bile salts, cholesterol, and calcium result in:
13. Do detect stones in the common bile duct, an _____ is performed. (abbr.)
14. Chronic inflammation of the gallbladder is also called:

Down

2. The anatomic landmark for removal of the gallbladder is the _____. (3 words)
4. Removal of the gallbladder is known as:
5. During the intraoperative cholangiogram, _____ can be mistaken for gallstones. (2 words)
8. If intraoperative cholangiograms are performed _____ is used.
9. _____ are applied to the cystic artery and cystic duct.
10. The gallbladder can be found in the _____ on the underside of the liver.