

Across

3. SUPINE—The most common position for surgical patients is :
4. TACHYCARDIA—A side effect of tightening the pins of the Mayfield headrest is:
8. SHEARING—As skeletal structures move and underlying skin remains stationary, the folding of underlying tissue is known as:
10. NINETY—Arm boards should be placed at less than _____degrees
11. PERONEAL—Use of candy cane stirrups can result in pressure on which nerve?

Down

1. ULNAR—A commonly noted OR nerve injury involves which nerve that wraps around the elbow?
2. INTRACRANIALPRESSURE—A complication of prolonged Trendelenburg position is increased: (2 words)
5. LITHOTOMY—Patients placed in this position for extended periods of time can frequently result in lower extremity neuropathies.
6. BRACHIALPLEXUS—Pressure on this nerve during deep Trendelenburg positioning should be avoided. (2 words)
7. TRENDELENBURG—When the head is lower than the body, the patient is considered to be in the _____position
9. FOWLERS—Which position can cause an increased risk for air embolism?